

This Congress removed the deductibility for health insurance premiums, for the average working stiff in the 1980's. The average working stiff who pays it by the month will not be able to deduct their premiums. Yet we are going to give it to the wealthiest who can afford $5,000 a year.

As my colleague from Ohio says, beam me up. We are going to let the wealthy, are helping the wealthy more by the $5,000 deductible buy MSA's, but we are not letting the average person who pays their health insurance by the month deduct it. We ought to do both in this Congress.

MORE ON FBI FILES

(Mr. STOCKMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. STOCKMAN. Mr. Speaker, I have a confidential file here that somehow ended up on my desk. I do not know where it came from or how it got here.

The President came to Houston a little over a year ago and he had the courage to admit he raised the taxes too much. Mr. Speaker, he is coming again to Texas and Houston, June 21. It is my hope that he will have the courage to apologize for taking these files on individuals and bringing them back to his office.

My fear, Mr. Speaker, is that there will be a lot less courage but maybe one day we will see some convictions.

POLITICS OF INSENSITIVITY

(Mr. MILLER of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, all Members of this House should be saddened today by the remarks yesterday of majority leader DICK ARMEY in his criticism and his remarks about the President's visit to South Carolina today to dedicate the new chapel at Mount Zion A.M.E. Church, a church that was firebombed and burned to the ground, 1 of 49 black churches burned to the ground in this country.

For the majority leader to turn this into politics is exactly the kind of politics that we do not need in this country: the politics of insensitivity, of extremism and of race.

The President is doing what any President of this country must do, and that is to bring us together to heal this Nation and to get us to face this national horror.

□ 1015

The President is doing what any President must do to bring the full force and effect of law enforcement against these crimes, against these bombings. The President is doing what any President of this nation must do, and that is to get this Nation to challenge, to challenge us against these horrible crimes. The gentleman from Texas [Mr. ARMEY] is doing what no majority leader should do, and that is to make politics out of a national terror.

ABUSE OF POWER AND INVASION OF PRIVACY UNCOVERED IN THE WHITE HOUSE

(Mr. WATTS of Oklahoma asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. WATTS of Oklahoma. Mr. Speaker, potential abuse of power and invasion of privacy have been uncovered in the Clinton White House. The White House requested, and received, highly confidential FBI files and records of former Reagan and Bush appointees, suggesting the formation of an enemies list.

Mr. Speaker, there are a lot of unanswered questions in this latest Clinton administration blunder. The American public, especially those citizens whose privacy rights were violated by having their personal files searched, deserve an honest explanation, not more excuses and coverups.

It is time for the President to come clean on his administration's activities. Tell us the truth about the FBI file search.

TRUST FUND SCARE ONE OF BIGGEST SCAMS EVER PERPETRATED ON AMERICANS

(Ms. VELÁZQUEZ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. VELÁZQUEZ. Mr. Speaker, we have heard a lot of rhetoric from Republicans this year. However, the current trust fund scare is one of the biggest scams ever perpetrated on the American people.

Republicans in Congress are using the Medicare trust fund report to justify their extreme proposal to slash Medicare. The trust fund report is simply a smokescreen for the real reason they want to cut Medicare: tax breaks.

If Republicans were truly interested in saving Medicare, they would reduce their huge tax breaks to the rich, not by slashing this vital program with cuts that will devastate seniors, close public hospitals, and burden working-class families.

Medicare is a program that should provide health care services for seniors, not a piggy bank for wealthy corporations and the privileged few.

300 FILES A BUREAUCRATIC MISTAKE?

(Mrs. SEASTRAND asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. SEASTRAND. Mr. Speaker, they say that nothing ever stays the same, and I suppose that applies even to Bill Clinton's beliefs about how personal FBI personnel records are.

When the American public was concerned in 1992 about Governor Clinton's military record, or lack thereof, the Washington Times filed a Freedom of Information request to check on discrepancies between Clinton campaign statements and his letters to ROTC officials.

At that time, the Clinton campaign said "It's a personal file. He's not going to [release the records]. [Clinton] just doesn't have to disclose every shred of his personal life, and the American people don't expect him to."

Apparently, Clinton did not expect that same sort of privacy for other citizens. He has raided the personal files of Reagan and Bush political appointees, yet it was only a bureaucratic mistake. A misplaced paper or misfiled form may be a bureaucratic mistake, but the personal files of over 300 people?

Clinton once thought those 300 files were personal. The American people, and the people whose privacy were violated by this administration deserve an explanation.

MEDICAID REFORM

(Mr. STUPAK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, after U.S. Governors earlier this year announced a plan to reform Medicaid, I looked forward to working in a bipartisan fashion to create a quality piece of legislation.

However, there have never been any bipartisan negotiations on the current bill. The result is a new blueprint for block-granting that may be ideologically perfect, but is socially destructive.

The proposed legislation removes the guarantee of health care for the elderly and disabled. It allows each State to define the scope, amount, and duration of any Medicaid payment.

It will require impoverished seniors to pay high deductibles or copays that they cannot afford. It will force spouses and children around the country to contribute a disproportionate amount for nursing home care for their parents or grandparents.

This bill would be devastating to rural health care, because it does not require benefits provided by each State's program to be provided equally to all parts of a State.

Medicaid was created in the first place because States did not provide for those who needed care. Let us not turn back the clock and create 50 new federally funded experiments that use our grandparents and children as guinea pigs.

HYPOCRISY IN THE WHITE HOUSE

(Mrs. CHENOWETH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. CHENOWETH. Mr. Speaker, 2 weeks ago Bill Clinton and his liberal partners held a stand for children.
